Wolters Kluwer at the 2008 Frankfurt Book Fair Customer Insight that Meets Customer Needs

Frankfurt, Germany (October 15, 2008) - Wolters Kluwer, a leading global information services and publishing company, announces its participation at the 2008 Frankfurt Book Fair, the world's largest trade fair for books, multimedia, and communications. From October 15 through 19, Wolters Kluwer experts from around the world will gather in Frankfurt representing top Wolters Kluwer brands to meet their key customers, partners, and contacts to introduce the company's latest innovative products and services in the information industry.

Wolters Kluwer health, corporate services, tax, accounting, legal, and regulatory businesses can be found in hall 4.2 (stand P401), showcasing flagship products from leading brands such as Adis, Aspen Publishers, Carl Heymanns Verlag, Kluwer Law International, Lippincott Williams & Wilkins, Luchterhand, and Ovid.

From Wednesday, October 15 through Friday, October 17, Wolters Kluwer Germany will host the "red sofa" conference on the stand. Several well-known German authors will share their view on the current topics and developments in German law and regulatory areas. The full conference program is available at www.wolterskluwer.de/buchmesse/programm.

In addition, Wolters Kluwer's experts will be available to speak on a variety of industry subjects and the next generation of publishing, demonstrating the latest solutions to help their professional customers increase their efficiency and improve their productivity. Representatives from Ovid will be on hand to discuss Ovid's latest products, Nursing@Ovid and Ovid Universal Search.
